

TO-DAY'S NEWS IN BRIEF.

Local discount rates were quoted at 5 to 7 per cent on call and time loans. The cash rates were 80 to 85 and the balances 10 to 15. Domestic exchange was quoted as follows: New York, 36; premium bid, 36; premium asked, 36; Chicago, 26; premium bid, 26; premium asked, 26; Cincinnati, 26; discount bid, 26; discount asked, 26; New Orleans, 26; discount bid, 26; discount asked, 26.

The local market for wheat closed lower at 25 1/2 c. May; 25 1/2 c. July; 25 1/2 c. Sept. No. 2. Corn closed lower at 25 1/2 c. May; 25 1/2 c. July; 25 1/2 c. Sept. No. 2. The market for standard mess pork closed at 15 1/2 c. The market for spot cotton closed at 15 1/2 c.

WASHINGTON.

United States government orders General Clarke to begin at once to take American troops out of China.

LOCAL AND SUBURBAN.

Afforded Thelma, 16, a fine time in a quarrel over the closing of a door.

John I. McCarthy kills a deer in his kitchen at midnight and after finds that it was the pet of a neighbor.

Residents in the vicinity of Chouteau and Newstead avenues renew their fight on the gas tank which the Laclede Gas Light Company proposes to erect there.

Inactivity on the part of the Municipal Assembly may result in leaving the public buildings in darkness after August 1, when the present contract expires.

Doctor J. H. Young of St. Louis, Mo., 12 Church, South, and neighbor Palmer of the St. Louis Christian Advocate are at odds over the latter's utterances on the temperance question.

In the arrest of William H. McTaffee the police believe they have found one of the men who have been picking pockets on the street cars for the last two weeks.

Subscribers continue to hasten the payment of their assessments on their World's Fair stock. The longest proposed to the active workers of the bill has been postponed.

The Fair Grounds will be sold in a few days to the Tilles-Adler syndicate and the price is said to be $200,000.

Miss Alexia Louise Greenleaf refuses to sign an antenuptial agreement required by the Catholic church and the ceremony for her marriage to Colonel Ernest Peugnet is performed by a Protestant clergyman.

H. A. Canedy of Greenville, Ill., and Nellie Trotter of Troy, Ill., eloped to St. Louis and were wed.

Belleville police threaten to strike unless the City Council raises their wages.

General Harrison is to be buried beside his first wife Sunday afternoon.

Governor Dockery will not appoint World's Fair commissioners until their services are needed.

Mrs. Richardson is indicted by the Grand Jury at Savannah, Mo., for murder in the first degree and will be tried in July. She is charged with killing her husband, a prominent merchant.

The preliminary hearing of Lawyer Patrick, accused of poisoning Millionaire Rice, has been postponed at the request of the District Attorney, who says it is a very difficult case to prove.

FOREIGN.

Count Boni de Castellane boxes the ears of the Figaro editor because of a printed paragraph.

China has protested to Russia against the terms of the Manchurian convention, which, in effect, establishes a suzerainty over the Province. In this protest China is backed by several of the Powers, notably Great Britain and the United States.

SPORTING.

Western track owners met in St. Louis and selected dates for the coming season.

Wild Horse ran a grand race at New Orleans yesterday and gives promise of being a keen contender in the Crescent City Derby, to be run next Saturday. The other probable starters are: Vario, Pileador, Choice and Henry Clay Rye.

Weights for the Carter Handicap have been announced. Intrusive carries the top impost.

Favorites had a bad day at Tanforan. Tuffind made a very surprising race in view of his last out.

Yellow Tail is unlucky. A bad jockey and bad exercise led to his defeat yesterday in the Burns Handicap feature.

Williams & Burns have bought all of the outside stock in Oakland and will continue the turf war to the last ditch.

Many ladies prominent in Eastern social circles play polo on ponies at Aiken, S. C.

RAILROADS.

The Texas Legislature has finally passed a bill allowing the consolidation of certain Southern Pacific lines.

The Interstate Commerce Commission will give a hearing to Kansas City March 21, on alleged secret rate cutting.

The recent purchases by the Goulds in Texas have stimulated construction.

Conflicting statements are made relative to the retirement of William Salomon from the B. & O. board.

Several Eastern lines have given notice of an advance in coal rates on April 1.

Engineers are surveying in the vicinity of Stoughtonville, O., for an alleged Welsh project.

The Columbus, Grove City and Southwestern was incorporated at Columbus, O.

The Western Passenger Association has taken no action on G. A. R. rates.

The Chicago, Miami and St. Paul declared a 2 per cent dividend.

President Hayes of the Southern Pacific outlines some plans for future construction.

Marine Intelligence.

Kao Chou, March 10-Arrived: Cathness, Tacoma, via Maroran.

Naples, March 11-Arrived: Chin Wo, Portland, Ore. via Maroran, C. A.

Liverpool, March 13-Arrived: Teutonic, New York.

Yokohama, March 13-Sailed: Tacoma from Honolulu to New York.

Queensdown, March 14-Sailed: Oceano from Liverpool for New York.

New York, March 14-Sailed: La Champagne, Havre.

Rotterdam, March 14-Sailed: Steamer Maasdam, Boulogne and New York.

Naples, March 14-Arrived: Steamer Trieste, New York via Gibraltar, for Naples, and proceeded.

Liverpool, March 14-Sailed: New England, Queensdown and Boston; Cambrian, Portland, Me.

Boston, March 14-Arrived: Pomeranian, Glasgow.

Portland, Me., March 14-Sailed: Numidina for Liverpool; Belgica for Antwerp.

San Francisco, Cal., March 14-Sailed: Steamer Grampus, whaling in Neah Bay. Passed on March 13: British ship Lynton from Liverpool.

New York, March 14-Arrived: Steamer Kensington for Antwerp.

GRAND JURY INDICTS MRS. RICHARDSON.

She Will Be Tried in July on a Charge of Murder in the First Degree.

WILL BE ARRAIGNED TO-DAY.

Prominent Savannah Young Man Whose Name Has Been Connected With the Murder May Also Be Indicted.

REPUBLIC SPECIAL.

St. Joseph, Mo., March 14.—The special Grand Jury at Savannah to-day returned an indictment against Mrs. Adeline L. Richardson for murder in the first degree, charging her with killing her husband, Frank W. Richardson, on the night of December 21. The indictment of Mrs. Richardson is only another step in the effort to force her to tell who killed her husband. Mrs. Richardson will be arrested to-morrow morning and her attorneys will try to secure her release on bail. She will be tried in July.

The Grand Jury is still in session and may return indictments against one or two prominent citizens of Savannah. The Grand Jury is expected to return indictments against the man who was connected with the murder of Mrs. Richardson, but those who know the man say she will not make known the name of her husband's slayer. Mrs. Richardson was in Savannah when the indictment was returned, but said nothing when told that she was charged with the murder. She spends the jail worse than death, she has said, and her incarceration may result in a confession.

The coroner's jury charged Mrs. Richardson with being an accessory, believing that she was connected with the murder. She was a step further in the hope that a confession may be got from her. It is not believed that the woman actually fired the shot.

Another indictment expected to-day. It is believed out of the Grand Jury room that the coroner's jury will return indictments against the man who was connected with the murder of Mrs. Richardson, but those who know the man say she will not make known the name of her husband's slayer. Mrs. Richardson was in Savannah when the indictment was returned, but said nothing when told that she was charged with the murder. She spends the jail worse than death, she has said, and her incarceration may result in a confession.

The coroner's jury charged Mrs. Richardson with being an accessory, believing that she was connected with the murder. She was a step further in the hope that a confession may be got from her. It is not believed that the woman actually fired the shot.

Another indictment expected to-day. It is believed out of the Grand Jury room that the coroner's jury will return indictments against the man who was connected with the murder of Mrs. Richardson, but those who know the man say she will not make known the name of her husband's slayer. Mrs. Richardson was in Savannah when the indictment was returned, but said nothing when told that she was charged with the murder. She spends the jail worse than death, she has said, and her incarceration may result in a confession.

The coroner's jury charged Mrs. Richardson with being an accessory, believing that she was connected with the murder. She was a step further in the hope that a confession may be got from her. It is not believed that the woman actually fired the shot.

Another indictment expected to-day. It is believed out of the Grand Jury room that the coroner's jury will return indictments against the man who was connected with the murder of Mrs. Richardson, but those who know the man say she will not make known the name of her husband's slayer. Mrs. Richardson was in Savannah when the indictment was returned, but said nothing when told that she was charged with the murder. She spends the jail worse than death, she has said, and her incarceration may result in a confession.

The coroner's jury charged Mrs. Richardson with being an accessory, believing that she was connected with the murder. She was a step further in the hope that a confession may be got from her. It is not believed that the woman actually fired the shot.

Another indictment expected to-day. It is believed out of the Grand Jury room that the coroner's jury will return indictments against the man who was connected with the murder of Mrs. Richardson, but those who know the man say she will not make known the name of her husband's slayer. Mrs. Richardson was in Savannah when the indictment was returned, but said nothing when told that she was charged with the murder. She spends the jail worse than death, she has said, and her incarceration may result in a confession.

The coroner's jury charged Mrs. Richardson with being an accessory, believing that she was connected with the murder. She was a step further in the hope that a confession may be got from her. It is not believed that the woman actually fired the shot.

Another indictment expected to-day. It is believed out of the Grand Jury room that the coroner's jury will return indictments against the man who was connected with the murder of Mrs. Richardson, but those who know the man say she will not make known the name of her husband's slayer. Mrs. Richardson was in Savannah when the indictment was returned, but said nothing when told that she was charged with the murder. She spends the jail worse than death, she has said, and her incarceration may result in a confession.

The coroner's jury charged Mrs. Richardson with being an accessory, believing that she was connected with the murder. She was a step further in the hope that a confession may be got from her. It is not believed that the woman actually fired the shot.

Another indictment expected to-day. It is believed out of the Grand Jury room that the coroner's jury will return indictments against the man who was connected with the murder of Mrs. Richardson, but those who know the man say she will not make known the name of her husband's slayer. Mrs. Richardson was in Savannah when the indictment was returned, but said nothing when told that she was charged with the murder. She spends the jail worse than death, she has said, and her incarceration may result in a confession.

The coroner's jury charged Mrs. Richardson with being an accessory, believing that she was connected with the murder. She was a step further in the hope that a confession may be got from her. It is not believed that the woman actually fired the shot.

Another indictment expected to-day. It is believed out of the Grand Jury room that the coroner's jury will return indictments against the man who was connected with the murder of Mrs. Richardson, but those who know the man say she will not make known the name of her husband's slayer. Mrs. Richardson was in Savannah when the indictment was returned, but said nothing when told that she was charged with the murder. She spends the jail worse than death, she has said, and her incarceration may result in a confession.

The coroner's jury charged Mrs. Richardson with being an accessory, believing that she was connected with the murder. She was a step further in the hope that a confession may be got from her. It is not believed that the woman actually fired the shot.

Another indictment expected to-day. It is believed out of the Grand Jury room that the coroner's jury will return indictments against the man who was connected with the murder of Mrs. Richardson, but those who know the man say she will not make known the name of her husband's slayer. Mrs. Richardson was in Savannah when the indictment was returned, but said nothing when told that she was charged with the murder. She spends the jail worse than death, she has said, and her incarceration may result in a confession.

The coroner's jury charged Mrs. Richardson with being an accessory, believing that she was connected with the murder. She was a step further in the hope that a confession may be got from her. It is not believed that the woman actually fired the shot.

Another indictment expected to-day. It is believed out of the Grand Jury room that the coroner's jury will return indictments against the man who was connected with the murder of Mrs. Richardson, but those who know the man say she will not make known the name of her husband's slayer. Mrs. Richardson was in Savannah when the indictment was returned, but said nothing when told that she was charged with the murder. She spends the jail worse than death, she has said, and her incarceration may result in a confession.

The coroner's jury charged Mrs. Richardson with being an accessory, believing that she was connected with the murder. She was a step further in the hope that a confession may be got from her. It is not believed that the woman actually fired the shot.

Another indictment expected to-day. It is believed out of the Grand Jury room that the coroner's jury will return indictments against the man who was connected with the murder of Mrs. Richardson, but those who know the man say she will not make known the name of her husband's slayer. Mrs. Richardson was in Savannah when the indictment was returned, but said nothing when told that she was charged with the murder. She spends the jail worse than death, she has said, and her incarceration may result in a confession.

The coroner's jury charged Mrs. Richardson with being an accessory, believing that she was connected with the murder. She was a step further in the hope that a confession may be got from her. It is not believed that the woman actually fired the shot.

Another indictment expected to-day. It is believed out of the Grand Jury room that the coroner's jury will return indictments against the man who was connected with the murder of Mrs. Richardson, but those who know the man say she will not make known the name of her husband's slayer. Mrs. Richardson was in Savannah when the indictment was returned, but said nothing when told that she was charged with the murder. She spends the jail worse than death, she has said, and her incarceration may result in a confession.

The coroner's jury charged Mrs. Richardson with being an accessory, believing that she was connected with the murder. She was a step further in the hope that a confession may be got from her. It is not believed that the woman actually fired the shot.

Another indictment expected to-day. It is believed out of the Grand Jury room that the coroner's jury will return indictments against the man who was connected with the murder of Mrs. Richardson, but those who know the man say she will not make known the name of her husband's slayer. Mrs. Richardson was in Savannah when the indictment was returned, but said nothing when told that she was charged with the murder. She spends the jail worse than death, she has said, and her incarceration may result in a confession.

The coroner's jury charged Mrs. Richardson with being an accessory, believing that she was connected with the murder. She was a step further in the hope that a confession may be got from her. It is not believed that the woman actually fired the shot.

Another indictment expected to-day. It is believed out of the Grand Jury room that the coroner's jury will return indictments against the man who was connected with the murder of Mrs. Richardson, but those who know the man say she will not make known the name of her husband's slayer. Mrs. Richardson was in Savannah when the indictment was returned, but said nothing when told that she was charged with the murder. She spends the jail worse than death, she has said, and her incarceration may result in a confession.

The coroner's jury charged Mrs. Richardson with being an accessory, believing that she was connected with the murder. She was a step further in the hope that a confession may be got from her. It is not believed that the woman actually fired the shot.

Another indictment expected to-day. It is believed out of the Grand Jury room that the coroner's jury will return indictments against the man who was connected with the murder of Mrs. Richardson, but those who know the man say she will not make known the name of her husband's slayer. Mrs. Richardson was in Savannah when the indictment was returned, but said nothing when told that she was charged with the murder. She spends the jail worse than death, she has said, and her incarceration may result in a confession.

The coroner's jury charged Mrs. Richardson with being an accessory, believing that she was connected with the murder. She was a step further in the hope that a confession may be got from her. It is not believed that the woman actually fired the shot.

Another indictment expected to-day. It is believed out of the Grand Jury room that the coroner's jury will return indictments against the man who was connected with the murder of Mrs. Richardson, but those who know the man say she will not make known the name of her husband's slayer. Mrs. Richardson was in Savannah when the indictment was returned, but said nothing when told that she was charged with the murder. She spends the jail worse than death, she has said, and her incarceration may result in a confession.

The coroner's jury charged Mrs. Richardson with being an accessory, believing that she was connected with the murder. She was a step further in the hope that a confession may be got from her. It is not believed that the woman actually fired the shot.

Another indictment expected to-day. It is believed out of the Grand Jury room that the coroner's jury will return indictments against the man who was connected with the murder of Mrs. Richardson, but those who know the man say she will not make known the name of her husband's slayer. Mrs. Richardson was in Savannah when the indictment was returned, but said nothing when told that she was charged with the murder. She spends the jail worse than death, she has said, and her incarceration may result in a confession.

The coroner's jury charged Mrs. Richardson with being an accessory, believing that she was connected with the murder. She was a step further in the hope that a confession may be got from her. It is not believed that the woman actually fired the shot.

Another indictment expected to-day. It is believed out of the Grand Jury room that the coroner's jury will return indictments against the man who was connected with the murder of Mrs. Richardson, but those who know the man say she will not make known the name of her husband's slayer. Mrs. Richardson was in Savannah when the indictment was returned, but said nothing when told that she was charged with the murder. She spends the jail worse than death, she has said, and her incarceration may result in a confession.

The coroner's jury charged Mrs. Richardson with being an accessory, believing that she was connected with the murder. She was a step further in the hope that a confession may be got from her. It is not believed that the woman actually fired the shot.

Another indictment expected to-day. It is believed out of the Grand Jury room that the coroner's jury will return indictments against the man who was connected with the murder of Mrs. Richardson, but those who know the man say she will not make known the name of her husband's slayer. Mrs. Richardson was in Savannah when the indictment was returned, but said nothing when told that she was charged with the murder. She spends the jail worse than death, she has said, and her incarceration may result in a confession.

The coroner's jury charged Mrs. Richardson with being an accessory, believing that she was connected with the murder. She was a step further in the hope that a confession may be got from her. It is not believed that the woman actually fired the shot.

Another indictment expected to-day. It is believed out of the Grand Jury room that the coroner's jury will return indictments against the man who was connected with the murder of Mrs. Richardson, but those who know the man say she will not make known the name of her husband's slayer. Mrs. Richardson was in Savannah when the indictment was returned, but said nothing when told that she was charged with the murder. She spends the jail worse than death, she has said, and her incarceration may result in a confession.

The coroner's jury charged Mrs. Richardson with being an accessory, believing that she was connected with the murder. She was a step further in the hope that a confession may be got from her. It is not believed that the woman actually fired the shot.

Another indictment expected to-day. It is believed out of the Grand Jury room that the coroner's jury will return indictments against the man who was connected with the murder of Mrs. Richardson, but those who know the man say she will not make known the name of her husband's slayer. Mrs. Richardson was in Savannah when the indictment was returned, but said nothing when told that she was charged with the murder. She spends the jail worse than death, she has said, and her incarceration may result in a confession.

The coroner's jury charged Mrs. Richardson with being an accessory, believing that she was connected with the murder. She was a step further in the hope that a confession may be got from her. It is not believed that the woman actually fired the shot.

Another indictment expected to-day. It is believed out of the Grand Jury room that the coroner's jury will return indictments against the man who was connected with the murder of Mrs. Richardson, but those who know the man say she will not make known the name of her husband's slayer. Mrs. Richardson was in Savannah when the indictment was returned, but said nothing when told that she was charged with the murder. She spends the jail worse than death, she has said, and her incarceration may result in a confession.

The coroner's jury charged Mrs. Richardson with being an accessory, believing that she was connected with the murder. She was a step further in the hope that a confession may be got from her. It is not believed that the woman actually fired the shot.

Another indictment expected to-day. It is believed out of the Grand Jury room that the coroner's jury will return indictments against the man who was connected with the murder of Mrs. Richardson, but those who know the man say she will not make known the name of her husband's slayer. Mrs. Richardson was in Savannah when the indictment was returned, but said nothing when told that she was charged with the murder. She spends the jail worse than death, she has said, and her incarceration may result in a confession.

The coroner's jury charged Mrs. Richardson with being an accessory, believing that she was connected with the murder. She was a step further in the hope that a confession may be got from her. It is not believed that the woman actually fired the shot.

Another indictment expected to-day. It is believed out of the Grand Jury room that the coroner's jury will return indictments against the man who was connected with the murder of Mrs. Richardson, but those who know the man say she will not make known the name of her husband's slayer. Mrs. Richardson was in Savannah when the indictment was returned, but said nothing when told that she was charged with the murder. She spends the jail worse than death, she has said, and her incarceration may result in a confession.

The coroner's jury charged Mrs. Richardson with being an accessory, believing that she was connected with the murder. She was a step further in the hope that a confession may be got from her. It is not believed that the woman actually fired the shot.

Another indictment expected to-day. It is believed out of the Grand Jury room that the coroner's jury will return indictments against the man who was connected with the murder of Mrs. Richardson, but those who know the man say she will not make known the name of her husband's slayer. Mrs. Richardson was in Savannah when the indictment was returned, but said nothing when told that she was charged with the murder. She spends the jail worse than death, she has said, and her incarceration may result in a confession.

WORLD'S FAIR ASSESSMENTS ARE STILL POSTPONED.

Banquet To Active Friends of The Louisiana Purchase Exposition Bill Postponed—State Militia Seeks Adequate Recognition.

James L. Blair, chairman of the World's Fair fund, and Charles Committee, has the incorporation papers of the Louisiana Purchase Exposition Company in readiness to file with the Secretary of State immediately upon receipt of the bill in its present assessment. All World's Fair workers are anxious that the papers be filed with as little delay as possible, and for the bill to be passed in the next session, thus enabling them to make their payments promptly on Monday.

Members of the Finance Committee anticipated difficulty in securing the bill. Yesterday the letters at the National Bank of Commerce were kept busy from the time the bank opened until 3 o'clock, and the south side of the building and giving receipts. The collections have ranged from $1 up to $1,000. Special preparations have been made by the bank to accommodate the rush which is expected Monday morning.

Yesterday was a busy day at the temporary headquarters in the Mercantile Club. The regular force, reinforced by several additional clerks, was kept at work from 8 a. m. until 10 p. m. in indexing and classifying the numerous blanks which were turned out by the bank. The blanks, which range from 1,000 to 1,000,000, are being classified by the bank. The blanks, which range from 1,000 to 1,000,000, are being classified by the bank. The blanks, which range from 1,000 to 1,000,000, are being classified by the bank.

Due to the inability of the Business Men's League to reach the various Senators and Congressmen whom it wishes to honor, the proposed banquet for March 21 has been postponed. President Washington received a letter from Governor D. R. Francis, who is in New York, 30 held before March 21. There will be a meeting of the Executive Committee of the State Fair Association to discuss plans for the entertainment.

The Master Builders' Association, whose members are the building contractors generally to the World's Fair, has taken steps to secure representation in the World's Fair. The association, which is a typical native settlement, has taken steps to secure representation in the World's Fair. The association, which is a typical native settlement, has taken steps to secure representation in the World's Fair.

A petition was circulated on the floor of the Mercantile Club yesterday, asking Governor Dockery to appoint Judge William R. Wilkinson as one of the Missouri commissioners to the World's Fair. The petition was signed by many of the leading members of the exchange.

The Missouri State Militia is being organized by the World's Fair. The militia is being organized by the World's Fair. The militia is being organized by the World's Fair.

The militia is being organized by the World's Fair. The militia is being organized by the World's Fair. The militia is being organized by the World's Fair.

The militia is being organized by the World's Fair. The militia is being organized by the World's Fair. The militia is being organized by the World's Fair.

The militia is being organized by the World's Fair. The militia is being organized by the World's Fair. The militia is being organized by the World's Fair.

The militia is being organized by the World's Fair. The militia is being organized by the World's Fair. The militia is being organized by the World's Fair.

The militia is being organized by the World's Fair. The militia is being organized by the World's Fair. The militia is being organized by the World's Fair.

The militia is being organized by the World's Fair. The militia is being organized by the World's Fair. The militia is being organized by the World's Fair.

The militia is being organized by the World's Fair. The militia is being organized by the World's Fair. The militia is being organized by the World's Fair.

The militia is being organized by the World's Fair. The militia is being organized by the World's Fair. The militia is being organized by the World's Fair.

The militia is being organized by the World's Fair. The militia is being organized by the World's Fair. The militia is being organized by the World's Fair.

The militia is being organized by the World's Fair. The militia is being organized by the World's Fair. The militia is being organized by the World's Fair.

The militia is being organized by the World's Fair. The militia is being organized by the World's Fair. The militia is being organized by the World's Fair.

The militia is being organized by the World's Fair. The militia is being organized by the World's Fair. The militia is being organized by the World's Fair.

The militia is being organized by the World's Fair. The militia is being organized by the World's Fair. The militia is being organized by the World's Fair.

The militia is being organized by the World's Fair. The militia is being organized by the World's Fair. The militia is being organized by the World's Fair.

The militia is being organized by the World's Fair. The militia is being organized by the World's Fair. The militia is being organized by the World's Fair.

The militia is being organized by the World's Fair. The militia is being organized by the World's Fair. The militia is being organized by the World's Fair.

The militia is being organized by the World's Fair. The militia is being organized by the World's Fair. The militia is being organized by the World's Fair.

The militia is being organized by the World's Fair. The militia is being organized by the World's Fair. The militia is being organized by the World's Fair.

The militia is being organized by the World's Fair. The militia is being organized by the World's Fair. The militia is being organized by the World's Fair.

The militia is being organized by the World's Fair. The militia is being organized by the World's Fair. The militia is being organized by the World's Fair.

The militia is being organized by the World's Fair. The militia is being organized by the World's Fair. The militia is being organized by the World's Fair.

The militia is being organized by the World's Fair. The militia is being organized by the World's Fair. The militia is being organized by the World's Fair.

The militia is being organized by the World's Fair. The militia is being organized by the World's Fair. The militia is being organized by the World's Fair.

The militia is being organized by the World's Fair. The militia is being organized by the World's Fair. The militia is being organized by the World's Fair.

The militia is being organized by the World's Fair. The militia is being organized by the World's Fair. The militia is being organized by the World's Fair.

The militia is being organized by the World's Fair. The militia is being organized by the World's Fair. The militia is being organized by the World's Fair.

The militia is being organized by the World's Fair. The militia is being organized by the World's Fair. The militia is being organized by the World's Fair.

The militia is being organized by the World's Fair. The militia is being organized by the World's Fair. The militia is being organized by the World's Fair.

The militia is being organized by the World's Fair. The militia is being organized by the World's Fair. The militia is being organized by the World's Fair.

The militia is being organized by the World's Fair. The militia is being organized by the World's Fair. The militia is being organized by the World's Fair.

The militia is being organized by the World's Fair. The militia is being organized by the World's Fair. The militia is being organized by the World's Fair.

The militia is being organized by the World's Fair. The militia is being organized by the World's Fair. The militia is being organized by the World's Fair.

The militia is being organized by the World's Fair. The militia is being organized by the World's Fair. The militia is being organized by the World's Fair.

The militia is being organized by the World's Fair. The militia is being organized by the World's Fair. The militia is being organized by the World's Fair.

The militia is being organized by the World's Fair. The militia is being organized by the World's Fair. The militia is being organized by the World's Fair.

The militia is being organized by the World's Fair. The militia is being organized by the World's Fair. The militia is being organized by the World's Fair.

The militia is being organized by the World's Fair. The militia is being organized by the World's Fair. The militia is being organized by the World's Fair.

The militia is being organized by the World's Fair. The militia is